OUR PHILOSOPHY

Our philosophy is a two-in-one step process — Assessment and Stimulation with ONDAMED occurs at the same time.

ONDAMED System
Focused pulsating fields for stimulating cellular repair and regeneration.

For close to twenty years, the ONDAMED has transformed thousands of lives throughout the world.

What is ONDAMED?

ONDAMED was invented by electronics engineer, Rolf Binder in Schwanau, Germany. The technology is the culmination of 25 years of research in biophysical medical testing and therapy that resulted in the development of several well known and sophisticated therapeutic devices. On the basis of this experience, Binder discovered how to interrogate the body's communication systems and introduce specific signals that stimulate the natural healing process. Medical professionals worldwide have been using ONDAMED with remarkable success for over a decade.

ONDAMED (latin: wave medicine) is a technology based on specific Pulsed Electro-Magnetic Fields (PEMF) and its use centers around Pulse Biofeedback, enabling the practitioner to access each individual's needs. ONDAMED's unique feature enables the practitioner to monitor patients' responses to a wide variety of subtle electromagnetic fields initiated via a special applicator, and select which frequencies are most appropriate. These signals are then introduced with a hand-held applicator or the larger matrix-applicator.

The ONDAMED System complements existing treatments, including pharmaceuticals, homeopathic remedies, and nutritional supplements and can be safely used with other therapeutic modalities. The patients respond faster and the effects are longer lasting.

How does the ONDAMED work?

ONDAMED is based on the principle of electro-magnetic induction to a highly focused pulsed electro-magnetic field that penetrates deep into a targeted region of the body. It painlessly stimulates tissue eliciting a pulsed biofeedback signal to alert the therapist of potential treatment foci.

Mechanism of Action

Helps the therapist

- add energy through natural resonance effects
- promote relaxation as evidenced by changes in brain waves

Who can benefit from ONDAMED?

Over the past 50 years, scientists and engineers have developed various techniques for "looking" inside the body to diagnose disease and trauma. Examples include X-Ray, CT scans, MRI, Ultrasound, and others. Likewise, treatments are provided by the energy from lasers, the Gamma Knife, and so on. ONDAMED, a specific Electro-Magnetic Field Biofeedback device, combined with the patient's own pulse biofeedback, is yet another non-invasive break-through modality, to enable the practitioner to relieve pain, improve cell function and circulation, and promote relaxation.

ONDAMED can be used on all your patients who are seeking relief from pain, promoting relaxation and improved sleeping patterns, as well as improved circulation.

ONDAMED is non-invasive, safe, and has no known side effects.

ONDAMED helps the therapist provide painless and non-invasive complement or alternative pain relief options, supporting surgery and drugs. ONDAMED can enhance the effectiveness of conventional treatments, accelerate recovery time while reducing side effects.

90% (n=27) of patients with different types of pain recovered within 2–12 treatments.

A Brief History of Great Innovations in Non-Invasive Medicine

ONDAMED is the innovation your patients want.

Over the past several centuries, there have been some great non-invasive innovations that have changed lives and, therefore, became the technology patients demanded.

ONDAMED is a gentle, highly effective approach to bringing physiological balance to the entire body. Safe, efficient and fast acting, it is the method of choice for the most challenging medical issues.

We have always known that every patient is different, and that every patient wants to be treated as an individual rather than as a symptom or as a disease. Practitioners locate every patient's main disturbances while simultaneously applying the most significant treatment stimulation to help improve function.

Instead of side effects, there are side benefits! Benefits like improved health and quality of life that restore comfort and ensure longevity.

The good kind!

"ONDAMED has an ingenious design derived from decades of careful research from around the world. I particularly like the gentle way the stimuli are applied. Research has shown that the human body actually responds better to small signals than to strong ones."

James L. Oschman, Ph.D.

Scientist & Author of "Energy Medicine: The Scientific Basis" and "Energy Medicine in Therapeutics and Human Performance."

"The vibrational frequencies that are determined by sophisticated equipment like ONDAMED is perhaps a search for real truth.

This is the future of medicine"

Stephen T. Sinatra, M.D.

Founder of the New England Heart and Longevity Center, a Center for Anti-Aging Medicine. Dr. Sinatra integrates conventional medical treatments for heart disease with complementary nutritional, anti-aging, and psychological therapies. Svetlana Kogan, M.D.

Dr. Kogan is Board Certified in Internal Medicine and the founder of Doctors at Trump Place (DTP) in New York, NY.

"ONDAMED puts energy medicine into the 21st century with its technology. ONDAMED can do so much for the body, for the spirit and can be life altering. I've had tremendous success using it with children and adults and it is far superior to anything I have used. As an acupuncturist and Doctor of Oriental Medicine for more than 25 years, I get better results with the ONDAMED and together with acupuncture, unbelievable results. It is especially effective with difficult cases. ONDAMED makes life easy on the practitioner and patients love the results."

ng a lot of Feedback. The good kind!

"Our entire practice is centered upon the principle that one's health trajectory is largely determined by the balance of one's dis-stressors (cumulative trauma & toxicity of life in structural, electromagnetic, biochemical, or mental/emotional realms) with one's inner vitality (our miraculous ability for self-healing). All effective health interventions will either decrease dis-stressors or correct an insufficiency that is impairing innate healing. Remove something bad, add something good and the body does the healing.... pretty simple. Yet, each person's health trajectory takes a different amount of force to change – some are more deeply in a rut than others. It is for getting people "un-stuck" from these life patterns that ONDAMED has shown exceptional utility. Often it is that 'tipping point' that makes all one's good efforts and intentions gain momentum in the world of real health results.

It addresses – on a level deeper than I could reliably access before – the underpinning connective matrix of the body. I can analyze labs, functional testing, and do in-depth interviews with my clients – all of which are necessary for whole-person care, but [now] I can actually both evaluate and treat that person's unique, unseen, and previously unquantifiable bio-electric field.

The recovery time [can be] as individual as the patient themselves. Some will seemingly not respond to therapy, yet others will immediately and dramatically respond in ways multiple forms of aggressive therapy had not been able to stimulate previously.

On occasion this has happened... what happens much more frequently is that patients will be amazed at the ability to detect those conditions for which our ONDAMED technician was not informed before the procedure. We have been deeply encouraged in the management of all neurologically-centered conditions.

"I saw a promising [biofeedback] device that would help me personally and used it for my fibromyalgia, chronic fatigue and Lyme disease. I am extremely pleased with it. I had excruciating pain, at the highest level of pain, a 10 and was not sure how much longer I would live, because I have been suffering with serious fibromyalgia and chronic fatigue syndrome for 20 years and because of the ONDAMED, I am alive, and doing much better. Now my pain level is at a 3, but I no longer take any medications. My own doctor looked at the gene aspect of my ailment, and my situation was the worst case there was. Now that I have improved significantly, I have acquired a second unit for my practice! I would strongly recommend ONDAMED to other practitioners."

"It is well known that the dental environment greatly impacts our whole body health. Likewise, the condition of a patient's overall functional health influences the health and outcome of my dental treatment. I use the ONDAMED to help assess, improve the patient's health both before and after treatment and to enhance and support my dental care. The ONDAMED helps to relieve stress in the body, particularly the upper head area where the neck acts like a tourniquet causing blockage of the lymphatic drainage system. The treatments help to open up pathways and create lymphatic drainage to allow effective treatments. As a result this helps eliminate pain in the jaw and the teeth caused by this trapped fluid."

Director of Comprehensive Dental Health Associates in Fullerton, CA
