

Re-create Yourself
Silvia Binder

*Child Awaken, be aware
There is no better place than right here.
Who are you today, this hour, this very moment?*

*Child of limitless possibilities, have you the courage to accept
The power that sleeps within you?*

*A power so silently awaiting your recognition,
Waiting for you to consciously say "Yes"
And walk away by your side on your hand.*

*A new wind rises from within,
Light emits through every cell
Whispers of wisdom are being heard throughout your being.*

*It is at this moment, that YOU have accepted your renewal,
Filled with life, respect, humility and gratefulness.
Living more of your own true power will allow you
To attract more power into your life.*

*Re-create Yourself
Let it happen, flow with it. You deserve it.*

*Your fellow earthlings are waiting for you to live your Powerful YOU, touching the lives of those around you;
Inspiring each and everyone of them
To Re-create themselves.*

*Why wait?
Breathe, connect, and continue every day, this hour, and this very moment to Re-Create Yourself.*
